

Safety Wear

The Tennant Group of companies include Tennant Rubber, Tennant PVC and Tennant Safety. For over 40 years, Tennant have concentrated on supplying rubber and other engineering products to business in the Midlands. Today, their knowledge of the needs of the local business community is rivalled only by their knowledge of the products they supply.

Richard Tennant says "As a distributor, a fast and accurate response to our customers is essential, whether it be for prices, stock levels or processing orders. Chatsworth's ability to provide the right solutions to our ever changing business requirements has meant that they are our chosen partners in IT. Merlin has exceeded our expectations and helps us to deliver a faster, more accurate service to our customers."
